Novels, poems, non-fiction, children books, originals or translations - anything that supports this strong message is welcome.

Share the books that express your believe! Inspire and encourage other publishers from around the world! Let everyone know about people from your country that are not afraid to express their opinion.

To support our mission please fill in the sheets and mail them back to share@book-fair.com. We will create an inspiring wallpaper at the Frankfurter Buchmesse in Foyer 4.1, to share your publications with everyone.
