THE ARTS + B3 BIENNIAL OF THE MOVING IMAGE

In 2019, the 3rd edition of the BMW Group’s the B3 Biennial of the Moving Image, THE ARTS+ continues the festival's mission to explore the intersections between art, technology, and society. It aims to create a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

As in previous years, daily guided tours and networking get-togethers allow for ad- connections. The Focus: Film Day also offers opportunities.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

In 2019, the 3rd edition of the BMW Group’s the B3 Biennial of the Moving Image, THE ARTS+ continues the festival's mission to explore the intersections between art, technology, and society. It aims to create a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

As in previous years, daily guided tours and networking get-togethers allow for ad- connections. The Focus: Film Day also offers opportunities.

In 2019, the 3rd edition of the BMW Group’s the B3 Biennial of the Moving Image, THE ARTS+ continues the festival's mission to explore the intersections between art, technology, and society. It aims to create a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

As in previous years, daily guided tours and networking get-togethers allow for ad- connections. The Focus: Film Day also offers opportunities.

In 2019, the 3rd edition of the BMW Group’s the B3 Biennial of the Moving Image, THE ARTS+ continues the festival's mission to explore the intersections between art, technology, and society. It aims to create a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

As in previous years, daily guided tours and networking get-togethers allow for ad- connections. The Focus: Film Day also offers opportunities.

In 2019, the 3rd edition of the BMW Group’s the B3 Biennial of the Moving Image, THE ARTS+ continues the festival's mission to explore the intersections between art, technology, and society. It aims to create a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries.

The festival at once, THE ARTS+ constitutes a vibrant, interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives, and to foster innovation and collaboration in the cultural and creative industries. Engaging this year's festival theme is to create a broad interdisciplinary and interdisciplinary networks and collaboration.

As in previous years, daily guided tours and networking get-togethers allow for ad- connections. The Focus: Film Day also offers opportunities.