

Stand up for human rights and help us celebrate 70 years of advocacy for freedom, peace and diversity.
Frankfurter Buchmesse / Hall 4.0 Foyer
buchmesse.de/en/onthesamepage #onthesamepage

I'M ON THE SAME PAGE.

Literature recommendations on topics related to Human Rights

- / „Amnesty International Report 2017/2018 – The State Of The World’s Human Rights“
- / „1000 Lashes: Because I Say What I Think“ by Raif Badawi (Greystone Books)
- / „Dignity in Adversity: Human Rights in Troubled Times“ by Seyla Benhabib (Polity)
- / „Human Rights: A Very Short Introduction“ by Andrew Clapham (Oxford University Press)
- / „Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City“ by Matthew Desmond (Broadway Books)
- / „Time for Outrage: Indignez-vous!“ by Stéphane Hessel (Twelve)
- / „The Sacredness of the Person: A New Genealogy of Human Rights“
by Hans Joas (Georgetown University Press)
- / „Long Walk to Freedom“ by Nelson Mandela (Back Bay Books)
- / „The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela“ by Nelson Mandela: (Liveright)
- / „The Origin of Others“ by Toni Morrison (Harvard University Press)
- / „Cyber War Will Not Take Place“ by Thomas Rid (Oxford University Press)
- / Do Not Say We Have Nothing“ by Madeleine Thien (W. W. Norton & Company)
- / „I Am Malala: The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban“
by Malala Yousafzai + Patricia McCormick (Back Bay Books)

In collaboration with:

arte

DER SPIEGEL

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

