Terms and conditions for the supply of plants and accessories

1. Order placement

(1) Clicking on the "I hereby place a binding order" button automatically submits a binding order, both from the shopping cart in Messe Frankfurt's Shop for Exhibitor Services and from PDF forms.

2. Description of services to be provided

(1) In the case of orders for Sundays and public holidays and orders to be delivered between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., no surcharge will be added to the working time. Alternatively the delivery will be effected earlier or the collection later. Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall not be liable for damage and subsequent damage resulting from delay or delivery difficulties unless they are caused by gross negligence or by intent, or unless the delivery date was expressly accepted as binding. Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH expressly declares that cold weather can cause insurmountable delivery difficulties, as when the delivery of living plants or flowers is not possible without frost damage. In such cases, not even absolutely guaranteed delivery dates can be met, and Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall not be liable for this. Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH may cancel agreed deliveries if invoiced sums that are due have not been paid by the delivery date or if enforcement measures have been undertaken against the exhibitor and the exhibitor has not paid in advance. Waiting periods of over thirty minutes for which the exhibitor is responsible will be invoiced separately.

(2) Ownership rights and copyrights / retention of title

Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH reserves the title, copyright and rights of exploitation to the offer documentation and all other materials, specimens etc. to which the exhibitor gains access as a result of the negotiation and/or implementation of the contract. Such documentation may not be passed on to, or made available to, third parties (even in part) without the consent of the title holder; it is to be returned without delay upon request and upon termination of the contract.

If Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH delivers to the exhibitor goods which the exhibitor has purchased, ownership of such delivered goods remains with Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH until the purchase price has been paid in full. On ordering and placing contracts the parties to the contract agree a constitutum possessorium as a condition precedent. If the exhibitor makes payments by money transfer, the retention of title terminates once the amount due has been credited to the service provider's account; in the event of payment by means of a non-negotiable cheque, it terminates 14 days after Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH pays in the cheque at its bank.

Rented plants remain the property of the Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH service partner that supplies the plants. The exhibitor is liable for the proper care and maintenance of the property of Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH until full payment of the purchase price. Alteration or resale of the goods, and transfer of ownership by way of security before settlement of the claims of Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH, are only permissible with the express agreement of the owner. In the case of authorised resale, the exhibitor shall transfer the purchase price in the amount of the as yet unpaid invoice. If Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH exercises its owner's right of repossession when invoices are not paid, its claim will only be reduced by the then applicable net value of the goods being repossessed.

(3) Compensation in the event of plant rental

If Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH rents plants that it owns to the exhibitor in accordance with decoration orders and/or special rental contracts, the exhibitor is liable for damage caused by inadequate lighting, heating and care, as well as in the event of loss or damage of the plants and accessories, even if such damage is caused by minor negligence or by third parties. In the event of loss or damage, the compensation to be paid shall be the sales price minus any rent already paid. The plants are to be cared for in accordance with the instructions for "decorative plants" given by Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH's service partner. The exhibitor is responsible for the rented plants and accessories from the time of delivery until they are collected (within two hours after the trade fair ends). Should the items be inaccessible (locked up), making it necessary to attempt collection again on the following day, the renter will be responsible for the additional costs entailed. If the value of the order is more than €250.00, Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall provide plant care free of charge during the event; if the value of the order is less than €250.00, plant care, where requested, will be invoiced by the hour.

3. Invoicing

(1) Invoices shall be due and payable upon receipt. Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall be entitled to issue invoices before the performance of services.

(2) The charges listed in the currently valid price list shall be binding upon both parties hereto. Any services that do not appear in the list are not included in the charges stated therein and shall, where applicable, be invoiced separately.

(3) Counterclaims can only be offset if they are undisputed or have been confirmed by a court of law in a final form.

(4) The currently valid price list shall apply.

(5) Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH will charge a handling fee of €50.00 plus VAT for subsequent changes to the invoice that are necessary as a result of changes to the invoice recipient, address changes etc. This fee will be shown on the modified invoice.

4. Cancellation by the customer

The customer may cancel an order for plants and accessories by submitting a written cancellation to Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH no later than 22 calendar days prior to the start of the event, reckoned from the date of receipt. Cancellations can be accepted at later dates only if provision of the respective service(s) – or parts thereof – has not yet commenced. Should Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH notify the customer that cancellation is not possible because the provision of the ordered services has already commenced, this notification shall be binding. Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH has no obligation in such cases to prove that work had already commenced at the time the cancellation request was received.

The foregoing provisions shall apply analogously to any changes to the ordered service(s).

5. Warranty

(1) The warranty is subject to statutory provisions unless stipulated otherwise in the following.

(2) The customer is initially only entitled to demand supplementary performance in the form of rectification. The form in which appropriate rectification is provided is at the discretion of Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH, which may provide replacement at any time. The customer may not assert any other claims, particularly for a reduction in price or cancellation of the contract, unless two attempts at rectification of the same defect have failed.

(3) The warranty does not cover defects incurred by the customer due to natural wear, moisture, intense heat, improper use or improper storage. Similarly, the warranty does not cover reasonable deviations in terms of form, dimensions, colour or types of materials.

(4) The customer undertakes to inform Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH without delay of any defects and to provide Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH with the opportunity to respond accordingly.

(5) In the event that the complaint about defects is made too late or reservations regarding known defects were not communicated at the time of acceptance, such warranty claims shall be null and void.

(6) Warranty claims shall also be null and void if the customer makes their own modifications or if they hinder/prevent the assessment/rectification of defects; this generally applies to complaints about defects made after the end of the trade fair regarding defects that occurred or became known during the fair.

6. Liability

Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall be liable without limitation for claims due to injury to life, body or health, breach of guarantees, and for damages that are the result of intent or gross negligence on the part of Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH, their legal representatives, employees or vicarious agents, as well as any claims resulting from fraudulently concealed defects.

In the event of a breach of cardinal obligations (duties whose fulfilment is of particular importance to the purpose of the agreement and on which the contracting party should be able to rely), Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH shall only be liable for simple negligence on the part of Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH, their legal representatives, employees or vicarious agents for such damages as were typical and foreseeable for such contracts. Liability for any other damages caused by simple negligence is excluded. This also applies to indirect damages and consequential damages.

7. General conditions

(1) Both parties to the agreement accept these terms and conditions as integral parts of the agreement binding upon both parties. Any differing general terms and conditions of business or purchase of the customer not apply, even if the customer has referred to these and Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH has not specifically rejected them.

(2) Should individual provisions of this agreement be or become invalid, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected. In such a case, both parties to the agreement undertake to replace any invalid provision with a valid provision that most closely achieves the commercial purpose intended by the invalid provision.

(3) Both parties to the agreement explicitly agree Frankfurt am Main to be the place of performance and jurisdiction for all claims and disputes arising from this agreement.
