

Service contractors for your stand

From forwarding agents to interpreters – you as an exhibitor need professional services to make the most of your attendance at the fair. A list of service contractors makes it easy to find the right contacts. Please bear in mind that these service companies operate independently of Frankfurter Buchmesse. The handling of orders and payment must be negotiated with the relevant company directly.

Please note the order deadlines stated on the forms. Late orders may incur additional costs of up to 25 per cent of the original price.

Please note:

You can find an order form and a direct link to each provider's website at www.buchmesse.de/service-contractors.

Exclusive service contractors*

You are free to commission companies that are not listed here, but for some of the services there is no free choice of provider. The service contractors listed below must be commissioned. The services in question are marked with an asterisk*.
